

Connecting industry to schools

Emirates Global Aluminium in collaboration with the Ministry of Education presents Engineer the Future, an interactive STEM programme for Cycle 3 students.

Engineer the Future is delivered by enthusiastic STEM facilitators in your school for grades 9 to 12.

MEET AL

Interactive open-stage

Duration: 40 minutes
100 participants per session
Location: school gym or auditorium

What students learn

Aluminium production process

Applications

Innovations

INVENT WITH AL

Four hands-on workshops

Duration: 40 minutes
30 participants per workshop
Location: classroom or science lab

What students learn

Industry 4.0

Material science

Sustainability

Circular economy

Recognition for schools:

Each school will be awarded a trophy and participation certificate from EGA.

To register:

Email us at stem-ega@edutech.com to bring Engineer the Future to your school.

A programme by